6. [REDACTED] LIAISON Took a call from Paul O'Connell, on the staff of the Morgan-Schmitt Senate Select Committee on Ethics Subcommittee, concerning the Subcommittee's request for information related to its investigation of the leak of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence oil study. I told O'Connell that [REDACTED] PCS/LOC, who had worked closely with the Select Committee on Intelligence staffer who wrote the oil study, had just returned from leave and would now be focusing on the Ethics Subcommittee's request.

O'Connell then asked whether we could tell him if former Senate Foreign Relations Committee staffer Jerome Levinson had filed a FOIA or Privacy Act request with the Agency. I told O'Connell that I would look into his question. After determining that Levinson did indeed have a pending Privacy Act request, I consulted the CIA Rules and Regulations to Implement the Privacy Act (Federal Register Volume 42, number 184 - 22 September 1977) to confirm that this information could be released to the Ethics Subcommittee. Later in the day, I spoke with John Marshall, also on the staff of the Ethics Subcommittee, who is working with O'Connell on the Select Committee on Intelligence oil study leak case. I told Marshall that in accordance with Section 1901.31(a)9 of the CIA Rules and Regulations to Implement the Privacy Act of 1974, I could tell him that Mr. Levinson's counsel filed a Privacy Act request with the Agency on 8 December 1977.
